ROGERS HIGH SCHOOL

Rogers, Arkansas

1966

Dedication to Mrs. Ann Morgan

We would like to honor a teacher who has given her time unselfishly to any student or teacher to help him with a small task or a large problem.

She has been devoted to her work in the business department as well as being one of the best student council sponsors that could be found anywhere.

To show our appreciation for all that she has done for our school and for all the students whose respect and admiration she has, we proudly dedicate the 1966 Mountaineer to Mrs. Ann Morgan.

FOREWORD

September came, and the nervous rustling of autumn leaves whispered across our slowly wakening campus. We returned, eager to renew old friendships and reluctant to explore new textbooks . . .

October brought to the Rogers High School scene its promise of frost and football . . . We yelled for our team 'til throats were husky and lungs ached . . .

Home again in November, too much turkey -- a very welcome pause . . .

December brought us dreaming of tinsel and myriad parties, of mistletoe and peppermint canes . . .

The semester was gone. Cramming for exams almost ruined January. We saw our grades, then sighed with relief or vowed once more that next semester would be different.

Spring thawed through and into March. Our fancies turned . . . Our hearts were suddenly very young and sometimes gullible . . .

April took us home for Easter . . . Teachers lectured and heads nodded drowsily.

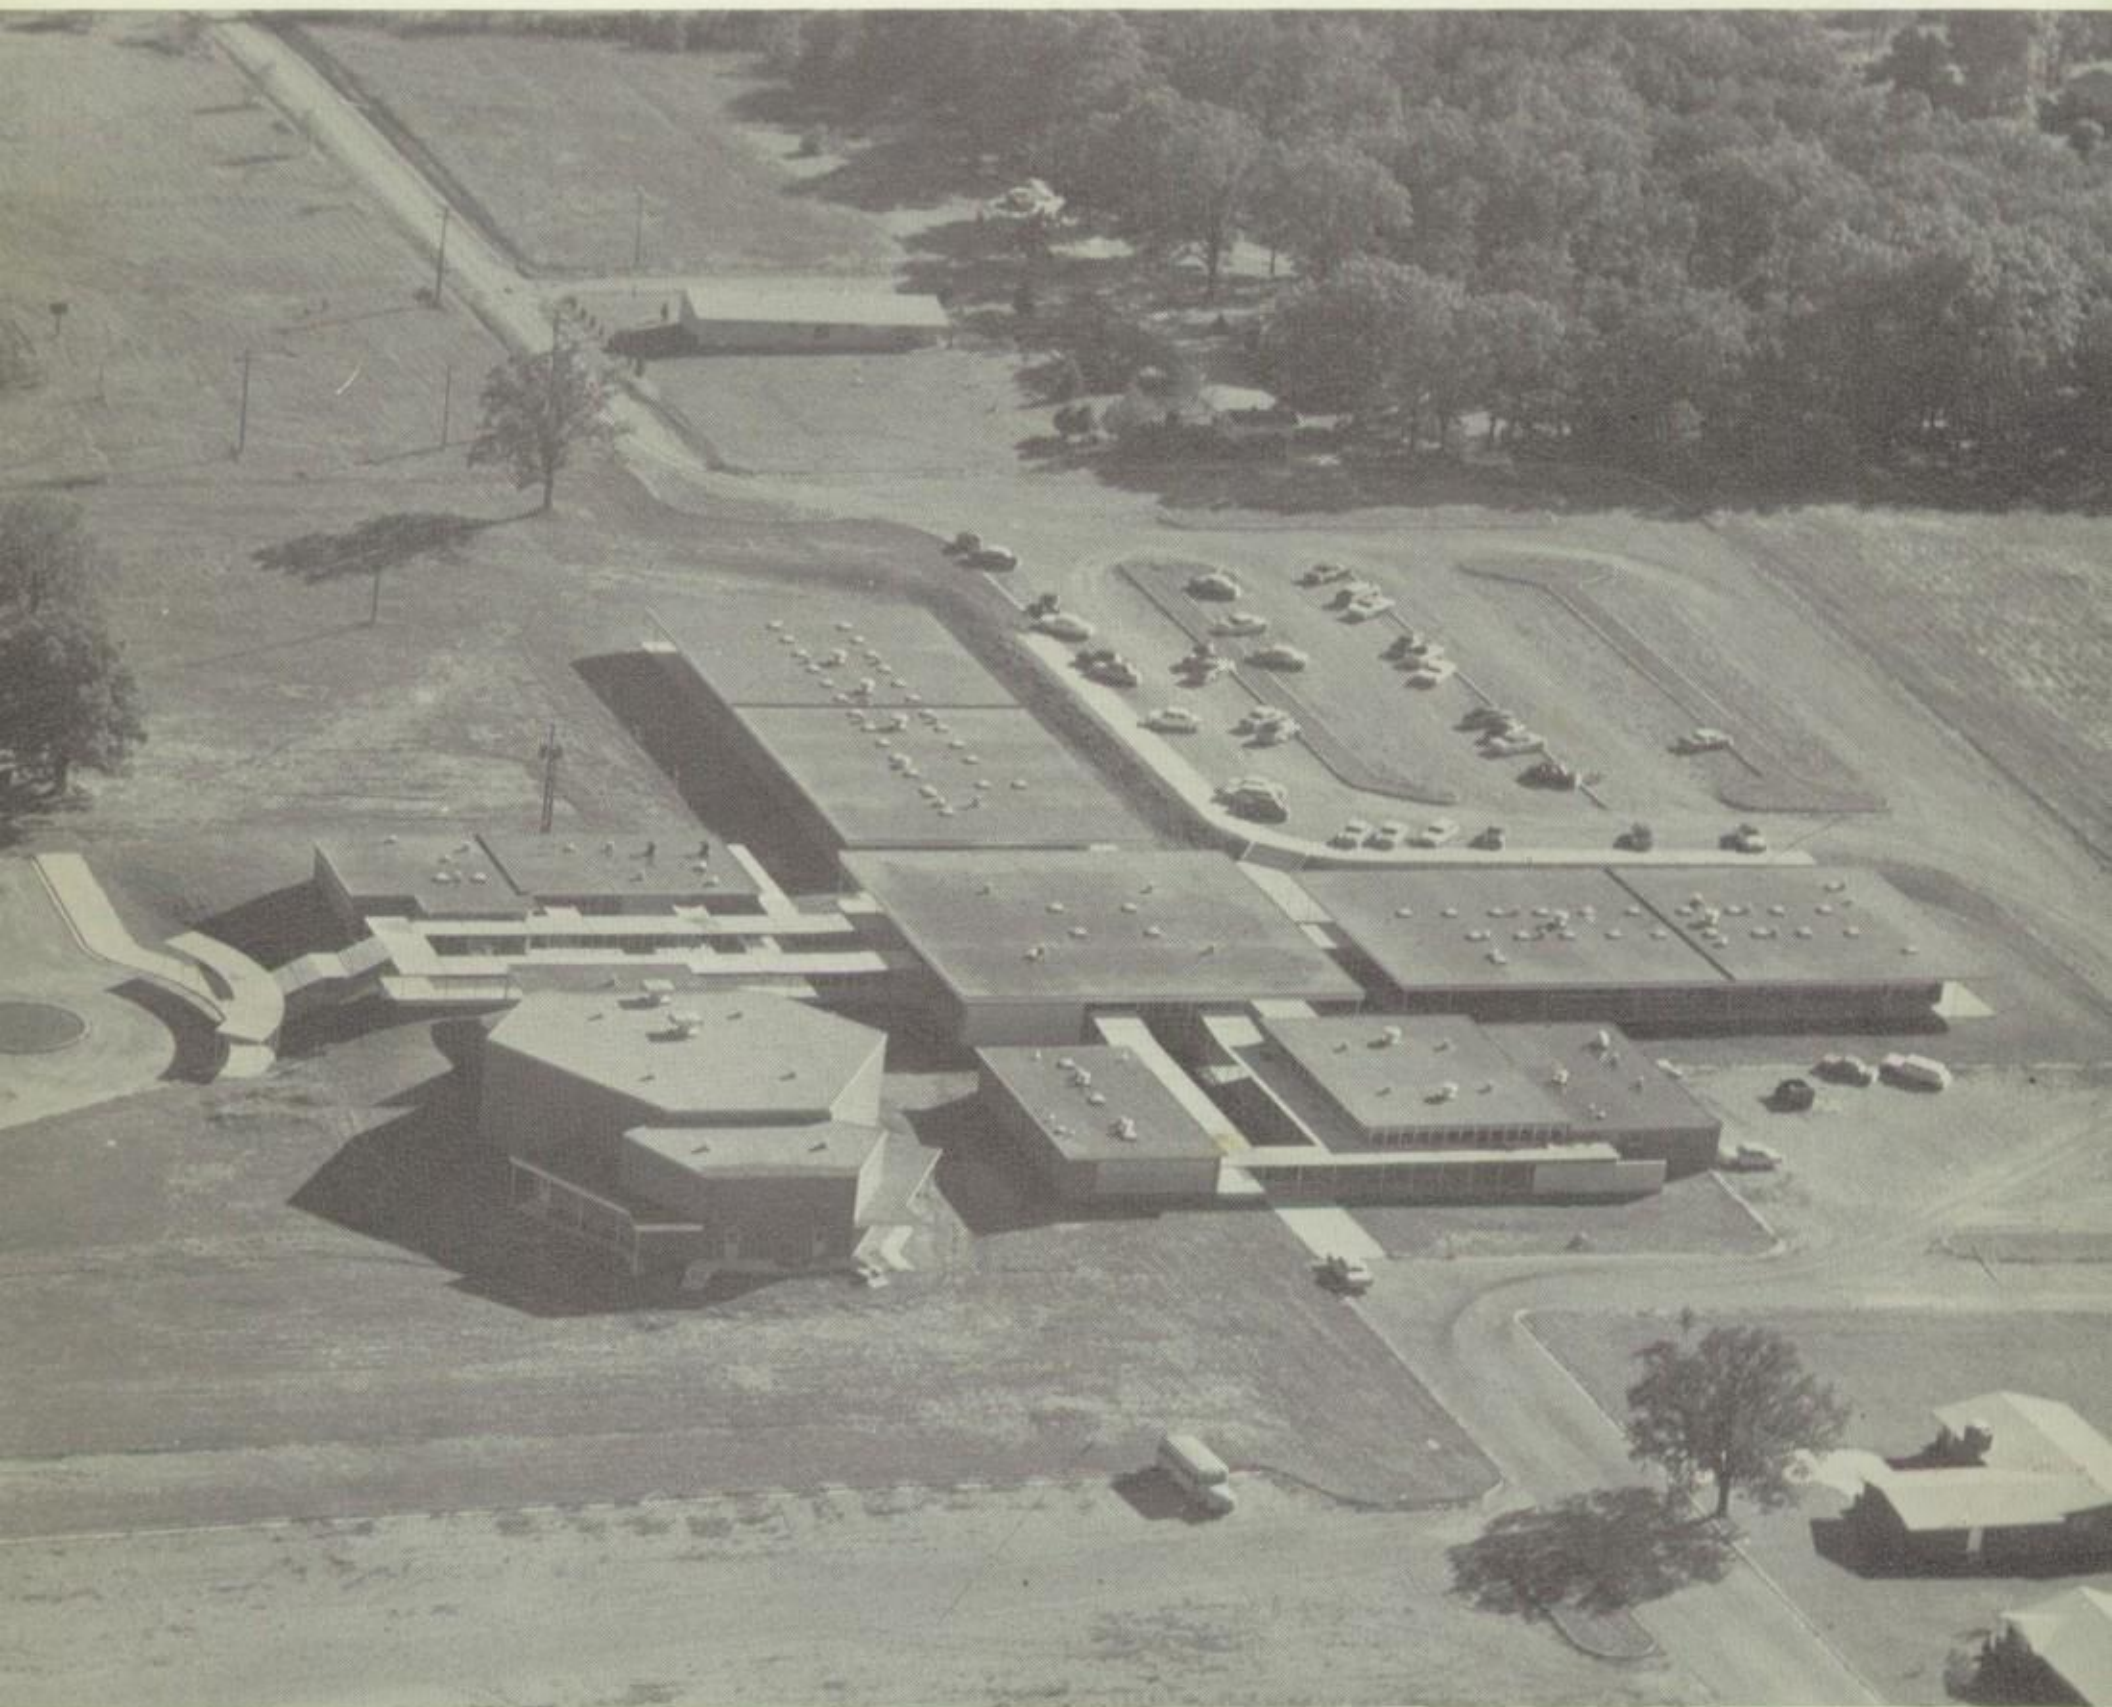

Spring Fever . . . May came too soon . . . Exams were taken and farewells were spoken . . . Familiar faces disappeared. Some of us were graduated . . . We wore our mortarboards and gowns and pretended that nothing had changed . . . Somehow we weren't convinced . . . Some of us will be back . . . Some of us are drifting. We can't decide whether fame or money or education is the anchor we need. We may not return . . .

And time passes by, leaving behind the unforgettable joys and the inevitable regrets and the hope of tomorrow . . . always tomorrow.

WHISPERS OF HOPE-----

Immortality is a word that Hope through all the ages has been whispering to Love. The miracle of thought we can not understand. The mystery of life and death we can not comprehend. This chaos called world has never been explained.Character survives; Goodness lives; Love is immortal.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

THE ROGERS JUNIOR HIGH YEARBOOK STAFF

.....takes great pride in this 1966 issue of our yearbook. We have tried to recall the past school term and its events in order that you might look back with the same pride that we feel in compiling this book. We are proud of our school, our faculty, and our student body. But remember it is you, the individual, that makes our present, our past, and our future. Let's keep up the good work, students, in order that our future may be as bright as we should hope for. Look back and be proud of what you have contributed to all of this.

DEDICATION

Her friendly smile, her gentle patience, her readiness to assist us with any problem, and her splendid example of Christian womanhood have endeared Mrs. Will to all of us in Rogers Junior High. In appreciation of all she has done and meant to us we affectionately dedicate the junior high division of the 1966 Mountaineer to Mrs. Mitzi Will.

A D M I N I S T R A T I O N

Two of the most important purposes of the junior high school are to aid the students in the transition from elementary to senior high school, and, at the same time, give them the best education possible during this period. Fundamentals are still stressed along with some introduction to theory. With the strictly academic subjects students are given the opportunity to participate in the fields of music, art, and sports which gives them an even greater possibility of developing socially as well as intellectually. During the six years the Rogers Junior High School has existed as a separate institution, the faculty and administration have been guided by these principles in the planning and operation of the school. Our aim must be in the future, as of now, that the best training and education possible be offered to the youth that attend this school.

A collage of black and white photographs from a school yearbook, featuring students in various activities, a large sign for "RIDGE RUNNERS", and handwritten notes. The photos include students in a gymnasium, a student in a cowboy costume, a student in a suit, and students in a band. Handwritten notes include "Put a tiger in your tank" and "RIDGE RUNNERS".

A black and white photograph of two cheerleaders in a school hallway. They are seen from behind, walking away from the camera. They are wearing dark, short-sleeved dresses and holding large, dark pom-poms. The hallway is lined with lockers on both sides and has fluorescent lights on the ceiling. The floor is polished and reflects the lights. The overall mood is nostalgic and quiet.

CHORUS

Mrs. Sutton's first year at R.J.H.S. has been an extremely successful one. We see this through the large number of young ladies and gentlemen participating, and by the fact that this group, and ensembles from it, have been called upon again and again to furnish talent at our civic meetings. Congratulations, Mrs. Sutton, on a job well done.

ART CLUB

BLUE BOMBERS

These girls have had to earn their points to belong and so we know these that are here are dedicated. Not only has this been a cheering squad at our athletic events, but also a working organization. Under Mrs. Bland and Mr. Formby, we would agree that the 1965-1966 Blue Bombers have been a thundering success.

GYM ASSISTANTS

L. to R., Sherry Watking, Linda Long, Jan Garner, Marcia Oliver, and Debbie Hutchens.

F. H. A.

Those girls that are enrolled in Home Economics classes and are interested in home making, join together to better America through the F. H. A. It is truly a marvelous organization, for here some definite ideas are beginning to form in the individual as to what she wants out of life and how she must go about achieving it.

F. H. A. OFFICERS

SCIENCE CLUB

Mr. Albert Gartside is sponsoring these young science enthusiasts. This is our first year for the club, but it's obvious that this is a very popular organization among our junior high set.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS
